NEAR-NEWS AND CHATTER FOR SATURDAY NIGHT

Miss Margaret Weston was the winner of last week's "Guess who's here" contest, W. A. Powell being the character represented.

He got onto the water wagon Friday night, and it was WELL. He knows lots more about water-carrying than he does about water-carrying. Don't misunderstand! He's a temperate gentleman, and although he's long been of the opinion that perhaps certain other gentlemen loved water "too WELL" but not wisely, he's been willing to let plenty of it FILTER into his system. Subtracting the kindergarten syllable from the name of the richest family, you have him. He seldom hinders, because his business is to let. He's democratic in alignment, aldermanic in function and singly blessed by choice. In a business way, were he an auctioneer he'd probably knock his own block off—not all at once, a lot at a time. He hasn't declared himself on the commission government plan, but those who install it in La Crosse will be taking his council. While he has been inclined to pour oil on the troubled waters, he hasn't overlooked the streets. Hush, hush! That'll do!

SHOULD AULD ACQUAINTANCE BE FORGOTTEN

Rev. J. S. Lowe, at one time pastor of St. Paul's Universalist church of La Crosse, is today recognized as one of the leading pastors of Providence, R. I. Rev. Lowe who is now visiting old friends here, was raised in the east and entered St. Lawrence college at Canton, N. Y., in 1898 where he studied for the ministry. He graduated in 1902 and was assigned to the Universalist church of La Crosse in April 1903. He remained as pastor of the local church until August, 1910, when he was given charge of the Church of the Mediator at Providence, one of the most important posts under the Universalist church. During his seven years of service in this city, Rev. Lowe took an active part in Y. M. C. A. work and was a member of several civic organizations. He was also president of the Pastors' union for one year and later held the position of secretary of the same organization. Rev. Lowe soon became one of the most popular pastors of La Crosse and being an energetic worker soon won a reputation which later led to his assignment to his present position.

SPLIT IN RANKS OF BADGER MEN FOR CHAIRMAN

Plan to Put Forward F. E. McGovern Causes Discussion in the Delegation

MIGHT NOMINATE COLONEL

Roosevelt Men Will Vote for Governor and Thus Win First Battle in Convention

ALL UP TO EXECUTIVE NOW

If Badger Official Refuses to Retire as Candidate, Bitter Feud May Result

(Milwaukee Journal Correspondence)

CHICAGO, June 15.—A situation that is already proving embarrassing and which may cause very serious trouble in the ranks of Wisconsin republicans, and even befuddle the situation in the national convention, is developing in connection with the tentative plan which the Wisconsin steering committee considered in Milwaukee to put Gov. McGovern forward as a candidate of the La Follette forces for temporary chairman of the convention.

Might Nominate Roosevelt

The La Follette leaders are now strongly of the opinion that for them to nominate Gov. McGovern or any other La Follette man would simply give Roosevelt's followers an opportunity to turn in and elect him and thus score a decisive victory in the opening battle next week that might result in a stampede, which could not be stopped before Roosevelt was nominated. If not as bad as that, his apparent success and the temporary chairmanship would place a powerful lever in Roosevelt's hands and go far toward enabling him to dominate the convention from first to last. It is neither the policy nor the interest of La Follette's friends to help either Roosevelt or Taft, and they have decided that it would be folly to incur the danger of giving Roosevelt any such advantage as an opportunity to elect a La Follette man as temporary chairman over the Taft candidate would entail. The Roosevelt men, it is declared, would not only be willing to do this, but they have actually been seeking an opportunity of this kind. They have made overtures to La Follette men to become candidates for temporary chairman, and have promised to support them.

What Gov. McGovern Faces

It is the feeling here that Gov. McGovern, in view of the whole situation, cannot permit his name to be used in connection with the temporary chairmanship without dealing a blow to La Follette's candidacy for the presidential nomination. The situation, of course, is very delicate. Unless a great deal of tact is shown by the friends of Senator La Follette, as well as by the friends of Gov. McGovern, serious dissensions in the ranks of Wisconsin progressive republicans are likely to result. In the nature of things, a great deal depends upon the course that Gov. McGovern will take. If, in the face of Senator La Follette's campaign managers, the governor should insist upon being a candidate for temporary chairman, the trouble may end in a feud that will seriously hamper the progressive movement in Wisconsin.

The Wisconsin delegation has not yet declared itself upon this question. The meeting held in Milwaukee a few days ago consisted of the members of the steering committee and a few other delegates. The delegates will meet in a body next Monday night, and it is certain that this question of supporting a candidate for temporary chairman will be threshed out and settled at that time. It is regarded as highly improbable that the delegates will take any course that will be prejudicial to Senator La Follette's presidential candidacy.

Only a few persons in Chicago today were aware of the likelihood of trouble in the Wisconsin camp over the policy to be pursued regarding the temporary chairmanship. When it was learned at Roosevelt headquarters it was intimated that Gov. McGovern would receive support from that side. The Roosevelt men had first selected Gov. Hadley of Missouri as their candidate for temporary chairman, but more recently they have been planning to run United States Senator Borah of Idaho. They cannot elect either of these men and are ready to support Gov. McGovern or almost any other La Follette man.

Wisconsin Leaders See Danger

For this reason Walter L. Houser, who is in charge of La Follette's headquarters, is shown to be strongly opposed to making any attempt

Badger Governor Sat In with Lenroot and Rest in Drawing Up Draft

DEPEND ON T. R. TO WIN

His Managers Believe His Personal Appeal Will Swing Delegates Over

LAKE GENEVA, Wis., June 15.—Governor McGovern of Wisconsin, leaving here this afternoon from Chicago indignantly denied that he assisted in framing the tentative draft of the platform on which Col. Roosevelt hoped to be nominated, and if nominated, elected, announced today by the Roosevelt leaders at Chicago.

Included in the list of Roosevelt men who met and framed the tentative draft was the name of Governor McGovern. Wisconsin republicans in touch with the situation today say that there was no doubt Congressman Lenroot, also mentioned, was present in platform conference of the Roosevelt men. It was known, they said, Lenroot had been flirting with Roosevelt for some time.

COLISEUM, CHICAGO, June 15.—

The situation here late this afternoon may be likened to the situation at Port Arthur on the eve of the assault by the Japanese. The Taft partisans are inside the fort, thanks to the decisions of the national committee.

They have prepared themselves as best they can to meet and withstand the assault of the Roosevelt forces, which will be launched. This afternoon both sides cleared for action and there was an ominous lull about both headquarters, and a let up in the bluffing which has characterized the action of both contestants.

THE STANDINGS

- Following is the standing to date in the race for delegates to the national convention:
- Taft, 518; Roosevelt, 450; La Follette, 36; Cummins, 19; uninstructed, 77.
- The score in the national committee:
- Number of contests, 184
- Contested delegates given to Taft, 139.
- Contested delegates given to Roosevelt, 13.
- Contests yet to be decided, 45.

noon both sides cleared for action and there was an ominous lull about both headquarters, and a let up in the bluffing which has characterized the action of both contestants.

Even his opponents concede Roosevelt's ability as a fighter and a tactician and it is generally recognized that there will be few lulls in the action between now and the final clash on next Tuesday. No quarter is asked or expected by either side. The fight is to the finish, and talk of compromise has gone by the board at this hour.

The problem of the Taft managers is to hold what they have. The Roosevelt problem is to get what they can.

Platform Out

With their candidate nearing Chicago, the Roosevelt forces today completed their arrangement for the pre-convention battle, with the presentation of the platform upon which Col. Roosevelt will ask the votes of the delegates and upon which, if nominated he will make his appeal to the country.

Roosevelt frankly says that the platform must fit the candidate and that it must suit him or he will not accept it, should he be nominated. Among those who have sat in on the platform conferences are Gifford Pinchot, James R. Garfield, Representative Williams of California; Representative Lenroot and Gov. Francis E. McGovern, of Wisconsin; Medill McCormick, Governor Hiram Johnson, of California; George L. Record of New Jersey, and Senator Borah of Idaho.

The Platform

The tentative draft of the platform covers the following points:

- 1.—A declaration that the struggle is one to return the government into the hands of the people.
- 2.—A declaration in general terms strongly favoring popular government through such instrumentalities as preferential primaries, initiative, referendum and recall, including the recall of judges.
- 3.—A declaration in favor of the

COUNCIL PASSES BOND ORDINANCE WITH ROTH VOTE

Five Aldermen Stand Out Against $150,000 Additional Bonds to the Last

WILL RUSH WORK ON PLANT

Only Majority Vote Required to Settle Further Questions in Well Plant Plans

TORRANCE VOICES PROTEST

Makes Plea for Substitution of Alderman Schneebberger's Minority Report

Over the vote of five of the aldermen who have for a year steadfastly opposed the establishment of a well plant in La Crosse, the common council at the regular monthly meeting last night, passed the ordinance bonding the city for the additional $150,000 required for the reservoir on Grand bluff and the greatest fight in the history of La Crosse came to an end. The changing of Frank G. Roth's vote to the "aye column" clinched the victory for the well plan adherents. From now on it is expected that the work will be pushed through as rapidly as possible, it being improbable that any question will arise that will require more than a majority vote to decide.

The reading of the ordinance for the third time was followed by the report of the ordinance committee urging its passage. Alderman Schneebberger submitted a minority report as a member of the committee and moved that it be substituted for the majority report. In his report Alderman Schneebberger declared that the city is not warranted in making an additional expenditure of $150,000 for a water plant which he said is only an experimental affair at the best. He objected to placing the city on the verge of bankruptcy and asked that the matter be postponed until some means had been taken to prove that the supply of water under the marsh is inexhaustible.

Torrance in Last Ditch

The reading of the minority report brought Alderman William Torrance to his feet with an eloquent plea for its adoption.

"La Crosse is not a city large enough to spend $400,000 for a water plant," he said. "This amount together with what has been spent on water plants will make a total of nearly $1,000,000. We need this money for the establishment of a good sewer system."

Alderman Torrance concluded his remarks by hurling a defiance at the railroad commission, saying, "I defy the railroad commission, board of health, or anyone else to come here and order us to put in this water plant. They can tell us to improve our water system but that is as far as their authority goes. We could use the river water and put in a sedimentation plant with the money we have now. I appeal to you, gentlemen of the council, not to saddle the city with this enormous debt."

Substitute is Lost

The substitution of the minority report was lost by a vote of sixteen to five, Aldermen Kohn, Neumann, Rybold, Schneebberger and Torrance voting for its passage. The same aldermen voted against the majority report which meant the bonding of the city, when the roll was called a minute later. The bonds will carry 4 1-2 per cent interest and will be issued within a month. It is necessary that the bonds be sold before the board of public works can advertise for the bids on the work.

The council passed the resolution of the printing committee awarding the contract of printing the legal notices of the city to the Leader-Press and the synopsis of the council proceedings to The Tribune Publishing company. The printing of the pamphlet form of the council proceedings will be discontinued. It was also voted to pay the $200 membership fee required of the city as a member of the Upper Mississippi River Improvement association.

Alderman Houska introduced a resolution to transfer $3,000 from the sinking fund to the street improvement fund for the purpose of repairing the road between La Crosse and La Crescent. Alderman Tarbox offered an amendment adding $1,000 for the repair of the "causeway" to the north side. The resolution and amendment was referred to the committees on finance and street improvements.

The board of public works was instructed to remove the piling in the channel of the Mississippi river at the foot of Winnebago street which is said to be a danger to navigation.

ROOSEVELT LOSES THE DELEGATES FROM TEXAS AFTER A BITTER FIGHT

TWO ROAD HOUSES RAIDED IN NIGHT

Eight Persons Are Rounded Up by Sheriff and Posse in Three Automobiles

THEY ALL PAY THEIR FINES

Jack Bennet's Place and The Alps "Pinched;" French Island House Escapes

The county of La Crosse took in $201.47 this morning by way of county court and the keepers and inmates of two roadhouses on the West Salem road were relieved of a like amount as the result of a raid conducted by Sheriff Chris Burns, undersheriff Louis Omerberg and four deputized city policemen last night.

The sheriff, Omerberg and Patrolmen Britton, Horschak, Groschner and Yehle swooped down upon the houses in three big automobiles at about 9:30 last night and loaded up the proprietors and inmates and took them to La Crosse where they furnished bail and appeared for trial before Judge John Brindley this morning.

Eight persons were gathered into the net of the law at the two houses, five from Jack Bennet's place, The Hillside Inn, and three from Cord Smith's roadhouse, The Alps, or the Four Mile House. Those taken at Bennet's were: Jack Bennet, Annie Bennett, Elian Haynes, Annie Johnson, Benjamin Taylor, $12.12; C. J. Smith, $56.68; Nellie Smith, $15.61; and Frankie Runyan, $15.61.

All Plead Guilty

The eight were arrested on warrants sworn out by George B. Marvin and arraigned in county court this morning charged with running and frequenting houses of ill-fame. They pleaded guilty and were fined as follows: Jack Bennet, $57.15; Annie Bennett, $16.09; Elian Haynes, $16.09; Annie Johnson, $12.12; Benjamin Taylor, $12.12; C. J. Smith, $56.68; Nellie Smith, $15.61; and Frankie Runyan, $15.61.

In spite of the fact that the raids were conducted with the utmost secrecy, it is rumored today that the raids had been "tipped off" to the proprietors of the houses in advance and as a result a smaller quota of "frequenters" than usually throng the places were in when the arrests were made. It is said that two girls in Bennet's place, known as "Jose" and "Ray" left the place yesterday afternoon for parts unknown on the strength of a mysterious "hunch."

Another girl by the name of "Camille" left two or three days ago. Many rumors were afloat today, one to the effect that the telephone companies had been ordered not to ring up the houses last night, but this could not be verified.

The raids were very tame affairs, not the least sign of resistance being offered at either place, nor was any attempt to escape made.

District Attorney James Thompson said today: "I have no doubt that the arrests will teach a much needed lesson. It is contrary to the law to conduct such places and they cannot be permitted to continue. If it is necessary to take any further action in the future the charge and penalties will be much more severe. But I do not believe that any further action will be necessary."

"KONEY" IN OUTFIELD

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 15.—Disappointed with the playing of two outfielders, and the team in general, Manager Bresnahan will present an entirely new lineup of the Cardinals beginning today, according to reports from the team in New York. Outfielders Oakes and Ellis will be benched and Bresnahan and Koney, regular first baseman, will take their places. Magee will play first and Huggins goes back to second. Wingo and Bliss will do the catching, while Bresnahan is playing in outfield.

HISS AND CHEER T. R.

NEW YORK, June 15.—Three Harvards and three times "three," proposed for Theodore Roosevelt by Langdon P. Marvin at the sixteenth annual dinner of the Associated Harvard clubs brought a chorus of hisses opposed by a chorus of cheers from 200 Harvard men at the Hotel Astor at an early hour today.

STRIKERS' WOMEN PARADE

LONDON, June 15.—Several thousand wives, mothers and children of the striking dockmen and transport workers today paraded through the streets from the East End to Trafalgar square on a "hunger march."

FIGHT ON VOTE IS FIERCE

Furious Scrap by the Roosevelt Men Results in Use of the Steamroller

CHICAGO, June 15.—After the most violent and bitter fight of the session, the national committee today took the eight Texas delegates at large from the Roosevelt column, and awarded them to Taft, this in the face of an admission by Judge Bryan, one of the Taft contest managers, that the Roosevelt organization in Texas is the regular and legal one.

All the evidence went to show that the Roosevelt men controlled the state convention overwhelmingly and regularly elected Roosevelt delegates at large.

The Taft men, however, argued that the election laws of Texas were all wrong, in that they permitted counties with only a few republicans to have equal representation with large counties. Therefore they asked that the Taft delegates at large, named by a minority of the large counties, be seated. The committee took the Taft view of the contest.

The Roosevelt contention in the first Texas district contest was that the Taft convention consisted of a few office holders and was illegal. The Taft people replied that the Roosevelt convention had not complied with the terms of the national committee call.

The committee, by a viva voce vote, seated the Taft delegates in the First district of Texas: Phil E. Baer and R. B. Harrison; also George W. Eason and C. L. Rutt, Taft delegates in the Second district of Texas. The Taft claim was that the Roosevelt delegates were elected in a bolting convention. Speaking for the Roosevelt men Cecil Lyon maintained that the Taft congressional committee that called the Taft convention was illegal.

Contests in the Third, Fourth, Fifth, Seventh and Eighth districts of Texas were also decided for Taft, despite furious opposition.

That the Taft majority on the re-

Author of The Prodigal Judge

THE Just and the Unjust, with its interesting plot, its flavor of Dickens, and its atmosphere, which though entirely different is as real and convincing as his former work, is a worthy successor to The Prodigal Judge.

The Just and the Unjust will not disappoint its author's admirers. The tale is well characterized and thoroughly human. Its plot is handled with the skill to be expected from the author of The Prodigal Judge and the breathless spell of its mystery holds to the last page.

As brilliant a story as The Prodigal Judge, showing the same keen appreciation of human nature, careful preparation, and study of detail as characterized that most popular of novels.

CLASS OF '12 IS NOW A MEMORY

High School Graduating Exercises Held Last Night in La Crosse Theater

JUNIOR PROM IS THE CLIMAX

Final Festivity of Commencement Is Annual Dance Held at Germania Hall

Another class at the local high school passed into history last night when the exercises for the 1912 graduating class were over. The class was one of the largest in the history of the school, eighty-four.

The whole graduation program was rendered by the class and its individual members. In former years the whole high school chorus helped but this year the class sang its own choruses. The speakers all did themselves and their teachers great justice in their different topics.

Good Citizenship
Arthur Hayes chose as his topic "A Boy's Idea of Good Citizenship," and handled all the different phases of the subject in a masterly and understanding way.

A quartet rendered Rubenstein's "Melody in F" in a manner which brought forth much applause and an encore.

Miss Della Jost sang "Jean" and "A Perfect Day" in most approved style. She has a rich, well trained alto voice. Her interpretation was excellent.

Arthur Kaulfuss as valedictorian chose for his subject "Our Debt," which he handled from the standpoint that the graduates have been given an education, and therefore owe a debt of service to the community.

Mr. Luening, president of the board of education, presented the diplomas.

The Program

The following is the program in full:

Marche—Militaire (Schubert)—High School orchestra.

"A Boy's Idea of Good Citizenship"—Arthur M. Hayes.

Piano solo, "Deuxieme Arabesque"—Claude Debussy and Jeannette Hankerson.

"The American Girl's Inheritance"—Esther I. Marcou.

(a) "The Bells of Shandon" (Geo. Nevin); (b) "Santa Lucia" (Neapolitan Barcarolle)—Senior chorus.

"Use of the American Girl's Inheritance"—Selma E. Larsen.

Melody in F (Rubenstein)—First violin, Albert Weimar; second violin, Joseph Spika; cello, Reuben Thompson; piano, Paul Egbert.

Vocal solo, (a) "Jean" (Burleigh); (b) "A Perfect Day" (Bond)—Della Jost; cello obligato by Reuben Thompson.

"What I Saw at Panama" (illustrated)—Irene Esch.

Piano solo, "Polonaise No. 2" (Liszt)—Lois Halik.

"Our Debt"—Arthur F. Kaulfuss.

Waltz from "Faust" (Gounod)—Senior class and orchestra.

Presentation of diplomas—President Wm. Luening.

Musical director—Miss Martha Rollins.

Accompanist—Paul Egbert.

The Junior Prom

After the graduation exercises, a great many of the graduates, high school people and other young people of the city went to the "Junior prom" at the Germania hall. There was a very large crowd in attendance, about one hundred couples dancing. The balcony was filled with spectators.

The hall was very prettily decorated to represent a Japanese garden. All the lights in the main dance hall were covered with artistic Japanese lanterns and chrysanthemum bulbs. Around the balcony, Japanese parasols filled with flowers were very effectively placed. In the center of the hall a Japanese umbrella filled with flowers was suspended. The orchestra was hidden behind a bank of palms, ferns and dark red peonies on the stage front.

Andre's orchestra furnished the music. A fruit punch was served by Miss Hamburger and Mr. Wagner in one of the ante rooms.

Around the sides of the main dance hall booths filled with penants, sofa pillows and easy chairs gave the dancers good resting places.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Hankerson, Mr. and Mrs. Benetz, Mr. Elliott and Mr. and Mrs. McCormick acted as chaperons of the party.

WET FEET CAUSED TROUBLE

Mrs. Coram Couldn't Avoid It, but Friend in Need Promptly Remedies the Mischief Done

Tampa, Fla.—Mrs. E. C. Coram, of 2905 Highland Avenue, says: "I was very weak and worn out from womanly troubles. My husband bought me two bottles of Cardui to take as a tonic, and from the first day, it seemed to me I felt its good effects. By the time I had used the two bottles, I felt and looked like a new woman."

Some time later, I got my feet wet at the wrong time, and I turned to Cardui to remedy the mischief done.

Before I had taken one bottle, it gave me the needed relief. I gave the rest to a friend, for her daughter, who was suffering with similar troubles, and it cured her.

Cardui has had a most wonderful curative effect upon me. I am now 59 years of age, and feeling well. I constantly praise Cardui to all my sick friends. It is a wonderful remedy."

STRIKE TOWN IS SCENE OF BATTLE

Perth Amboy Has Night Fighting and One Man Is Known to Be Killed

600 DEPUTIES WITH ARMS

State Troops Not to Be Called, but Private Detectives Guard the Plants

PERTH AMBOY, N. J., June 15.—Following a night of bloodshed and terror, the day began without incident. With 400 more armed deputies on hand, Sheriff Bolschweiler said he had the situation well in hand. The official report of last night's clash between strikers and sympathizers, and the private detectives guarding the American Smelting & Refining company's plant gives the casualties as one man dead and ten injured, two critically.

The 450 strikers at the Atlantic Terra Cotta works went back today, having been granted an increase of one-half cent an hour. This victory was expected to relieve the situation somewhat.

Wont Call Militia

Adjutant General Sadler intimated today that state troops probably would not be needed now, that over 600 special deputies, armed with repeating rifles, are patrolling the strike district. Governor Wilson is known to have been warned by his political advisers against inviting the enmity of labor leaders and workingmen by calling out the militia.

Only one man, Stephen Dudack, is known to have been killed in yesterday's rioting. The authorities fear that other dead and injured may have been carried away by their comrades. One striker, who had been leisurely firing at private detectives with a rifle behind breastworks, was the target of a furious fire and was seen to topple over. He was not found by the authorities.

Scores were arrested last night and corralled by the private detectives in an outbuilding on the refining company's grounds. The injured strikers were dragged in also. Arms and ammunition were invariably found on arrested strikers. The great majority of the rioters, however, used brickbats and stout clubs.

4,600 On Strike

The general strike up to date has spread to the following plants: Standard Underground Cable, 1,000 workers; American Smelting & Refining company, 1,300 workers; Perth Amboy Cigar company, 1,000 workers; Barber Asphalt company, 800 workers; and the Rosenthal Handkerchief company, 500 workers.

No leader like Ettore Giovannitti, or Haywood has yet appeared to lead the strikers and the disorganized nature of the outbreaks has made

Constipated? Go To Your Doctor

It is impossible to be well, simply impossible, if the bowels are constipated. Waste products, poisonous substances, must be removed from the body at least once each day, or there will be trouble. Ask your doctor about Ayer's Pills, gently laxative, all vegetable. He knows why they act directly on the liver.

COMMISSIONS FOR THE COUNTIES TOO

It was considered a somewhat unique idea when Oscar Hulberg, in an interview in The Tribune, advocated the commission form of government for La Crosse county. Now comes the Kansas Development Association, in annual convention, and passes the following resolution:

"Resolved, That whereas the commission form of government for cities has been such a marked success, and whereas the same form of government can be successfully used in county affairs, this association favors such legislation as will enable the cities of the first class to consolidate the city and county under one government."

THE LITTLE TIN
PLATE ORDINANCE

Publicity as a cure for a wide variety of evils is receiving much emphasis at present. One of the latest suggestions along this line is embodied in the "little tin plate" ordinance which has been proposed in New York city, and which would require that every building in the city have prominently displayed on it a brass plate bearing the name of its owner.
The name "Little Tin Plate" was first applied to it in ridicule, but has been accepted by its advocates.

It is rather generally known of course that many of the most disgraceful resorts in any city are owned by people of standing, who are to a considerable extent respected, who pose as of the elect, and whose connection with the substrata is known to themselves only.
They have no objection to receiving their share of the profits of illegitimate business in the form of high rents as long as it is not known that they receive it. They are able as long as they alone know of their relations with the lower elements of society to pacify their own con-sciences.

But a little publicity is a wonderful stimulus to a lethargic conscience. It is argued, and with some reason, that a very great number of people who now rent their property to persons engaged in illegitimate pursuits would cease to do so if their ownership of the property
were known. A sense of shame, the force of public opinion, would drive them to separate themselves
from those under the curse of public disapproval. Many an individual who now eagerly welcomes his snug profits would find himself
wringing under the prospect of public exposure.

Undoubtedly, a knowledge of the ownership of the property used would be of value in any efforts to handle the problems connected with the worst evils of our big cities. It has been found almost impossible
under present conditions to ascertain the true owners. A law to facilitate this and in fact to make it so easy to discover the ownership of a building that every passer-by might know would probably be of considerable value. At least it would put a true face on the mock type of virtue that masquerades as decency while living on the profits of the grossest immorality and the basest passions.
The "Little Tin Plate" ordinance is after all not so much a subject for ridicule.

WHAT'S BITING OUR FRIEND LAFE YOUNG

Lafe Young, standpat editor of the Des Moines Capitol, after being walloped in a senatorial primary, by some fifty thousand votes, has come out for Cummins for president and declared the progressive cause will be his cause in the future. As Lafe puts it, "The publisher of the Capitol and all those engaged in its daily work are enthusiastic upon the subject of keeping the Capitol a vital force in public affairs, in keeping in touch with the best sentiment, and of being an interpreter of the most advanced thought."

But really, Lafe don't seem to have got the "advanced thought"
until it had advanced to its destination. The truth is that he prefers skin-deep conversion to being left outside the breastworks. However, when he comes to realize that the tardy volunteer must march as a private in the rear rank, we may expect to see him again advocating the safe and sane and deprecating
the dangerous radicalism of the ambitious Cummins.

THE BIG POLITICAL ISSUE OF THE DAY

Proceedings in Chicago remind us of the latest inspired utterance of Mr. Dooley. The dialogue was as follows:

Mr. Dooley—"The fate of the nation's at stake, and there's only wan issue worthy to be considered!"

Mr. Hennessey—"What's th' issue?"

Mr. Dooley (roaring)—"Dilegates!"

That Boston organ-grinder who quits after 50 years with a fortune of $50,000 earned it, but wouldn't society have been ahead if it had given him the $50,000 five years ago to enable him to get out of the business? Or would he have used the capital to float an organ-grin-der's company and thereby increase the number of these nuisances in the country?

"To keep roosters from crowing early in the morning, put them in coops so low that they cannot stand erect or raise their heads. A rooster is unable to crow without standing up and stretching his neck," says "Farm and Fireside." Another way is to place the rooster gently
but firmly in a fricassee.

Events suggest it is now the open season for game birds, but there are indications that the frolicsome pointer flushed the covey before the hunters were in range.

Mr. Torrance says the well system was "railroaded through the Green Bay."

Domestic Hints (From The Scotch-American)

The diamond, in sufficient heat,
will burn like charcoal.
A bicycle pump will blow the bits
of dust and threads out of the delicate parts of a sewing machine that cannot be reached with a cloth.

After an umbrella has been in use for a short time put a drop of oil in the centre of the top about once a month. This prevents the ribs from rusting.

Of all things there is nothing more to be detested than deceit, and those who practice it labour under the greatest folly in thinking it will remain undiscovered.

Punctuality is one of the chief rules in a well-ordered home—
whether it be a small or large house.
Meals must be prepared and served at the pre-arranged hour.

Apple sauce strained and stiffened with gelatine, with a little egg white folded in as it is thickening, makes a delicious dessert when served with whipped cream.

In New Zealand powdered milk is becoming a formidable rival of condensed milk. The powdered milk is said to be much more digestible
and more suitable for infants' food.

When washing old cloth or linoleum never use soap or soda, or the pattern will be effaced. Use only hot water, polishing afterwards with a dry cloth. Oilcloth or linoleum treated in this way will remain like new for a great length of time.

CHOOSE MEMBERS OF COMMITTEES

CHICAGO, June 15.—The Mississippi delegation to the national convention met today and selected members as follows for the various standing committees in the convention:

Credentials—L. B. Moseley.

Permanent organization—Wesley Crayton; rules and order of business, W. T. Locker; resolutions, L.
K. Atwood; member national committee, L. B. Moseley; member of committees to notify the candidate for president of his nomination, E.
H. McKissack; member of committee to notify the candidate for vice president of his nomination, J. M.
Shumppert; vice president of the convention, W. H. Phillips.

TAFT ASKS MONEY TO CHECK FLOOD

WASHINGTON, June 15.—President Taft has sent a special message to congress asking for an immediate appropriation of $1,250,000
to protect the levees along the lower Colorado river now threatened by one of the worst floods ever known in that stream. The president represented that should there be delay in acting, the river would probably cut through its banks and flow again into the Salton sea basin
in the Imperial valley, California.

STRIKE HOLDS LINER

SOUTHAMPTON, June 15.—A strike today prevented the coaling of the liner St. Paul. It was announced that the steamship would be unable to sail.

Knowing How To Sell.

The late John R. Arbuckle, the coffee king, who left an estate of $100,000,000, often said that a part of his success was due to his knowledge of human nature.

"In selling coffee," Mr. Arbuckle
once said to a New York coffee broker,
"you should exercise the same keen discretion which the druggist showed."

"A woman, you know, a woman
well on in years, entered a druggist's
and said:

"Have you any creams for restoring the complexion?"

"Restoring, miss? You mean preserving!" said the druggist heartily.

"And he then sold the woman $17 worth of complexion creams."

Breakers Ahead

News Comment: Both of the principal Republican candidates are awaiting the turn of the tide in the convention to see which one will be landed high and dry and which will be swamped.

In this shop now we are experiencing a flood tide of success. The reputation we have made on good clothes
values is bringing back to us
now a greatly increased patronage.

Quips and Cranks and Wanton Wiles

The bravest Battle.

The bravest battle that ever was fought;
Shall I tell you where and when?
On the maps of the world you will find it not;

It was fought by the mothers of men.

Nay, not with cannon or battle shot,
With sword or nobler pen;

Nay, not with eloquent word or thought,

From mouths of wonderful men.

But in a walled-up woman's heart—
Of woman that would not yield,

But patiently, silently bore her part—

Lo, there is that battlefield.

No marshaling troops, no bivouac
song;

No banner to gleam and wave;
And oh! these battles, they last so long—

From babyhood to the grave!

Yet, faithful still as a bridge of stars,
She fights in her walled-up town,

Fights on and on in the endless wars,
Then silent, unseen, goes down.

—Joaquin Miller.

A Convenient Code.

Frank I. Cobb used to be a reporter in Detroit and knew intimately
a former governor of the state of Michigan, who was renowned among other things for his ability as a free-hand swearer.

One night Cobb was dining with
the former governor and his family.
A messenger came in to tell the host
that one of his pet political schemes had just been defeated through the bungling of a lieutenant. The old man ripped out a string of dark blue ones.

"Now, pa," said his wife, "you promised me you would quit curs-

nor, "I'm not cursing—this is just

Hard To Satisfy.

Life guards at a Jersey seaside resort tell with great glee of an incident that happened there last summer. A German, with his boy of 10 years, was standing at the rail of one of the piers, quite at the end thereof, when suddenly the youngster toppled through into the water.

As no life guards were out that far
at the time, a well-dressed young collegian on the pier, without waiting to divest himself of shoes or clothing, jumped in and after battling with the waves for some minutes got the half-drowned boy to the beach. In the meantime the father had hastened from the pier.

The parent, however, bore himself with great coolness. As the rescuer placed the dripping lad at his parent's feet the German calmly inquired:

"Many thanks, but vot half you done mit his hat?"—San Francisco

A soldier being photographed, happened to mention the name of the whereupon the photographer said

"Well," said the soldier, "I've seen Col. — a good many times
on the parade grounds, to say nothing of South Africa, and he never looked like that."

"Yes," said the photographer,
"but you must remember that the colonel was neither on the parade grounds nor in South Africa when he was photographed."

"Well, but I've seen him alone,
and he always looks as if he were going to jump down your throat.
In this you'd think he couldn't say 'ho' to a goose. Was he alone when he came here?"

"Well, no," said the photographer, with unconscious irony, "he had his wife with him."

"Oh," said the soldier, thoughtfully, "that accounts for it."—Titwith eminent satisfaction. For eight years it had been in continuous service night and day, handling its load without a hint of trouble, but that "upon shutting it down the

The Prospects Of Mary Ann.

scientist, a great astronomer, or even become the Prime Minister of England."

There was a loud sniffer from one side of his hearers at this juncture. "Ah, friend," said
the minister, "you do wrong to scoff.
Again I say this child may become Prime Minister of England. Now, what is to be the name of this child?" "Mary Ann," said the mother meekly.

Convention Sidelights

Many members of the national league of republican clubs, which was organized by John Hays Hammond, and is friendly to Taft, arrived here today. They will hold a mass meeting next Monday night at the Blackstone hotel, and on next Friday night will hold a ratification meeting and elect officers for the ensuing two years.

As the newest husband of Lillian Russell, Alex Moore, of Pittsburgh, is the cynosure of all feminine eyes
in the hotel corridors.

"I left Mrs. Moore at Pittsburgh and can hardly call her by her first name yet," said Moore to a bunch of friends today.

When a Florida negro, who was contesting for a seat as delegate,
was asked in the national committee
who paid his expenses to Chicago,
he convulsed the crowd by saying:
"Nobody; praise the Lord, I done raised a jackpot."

"Bill" Flinn, leading Roosevelt booster, is a statistical sharp. He has it figured out that the Taft delegates, with the southern contingent, represent 218 republicans each, and that the Roosevelt delegates represent 7,000 each.

Even the Roosevelt leaders many of them never met until they arrived here. Representative Billy Kenty of California and William Allen White of Kansas, both of whom entered the Roosevelt fight in its incipiency, had never seen each other until they shook hands in the Roosevelt headquarters. It is estimated 75 per cent of the Roosevelt delegates are attending their first national convention.

"How do you like the steam roller?" a Roosevelt delegate asked Henry Allen, state chairman of Kansas.

"It's sure working fine," Allen snapped. "But the band wagon is going to finish far in the lead."

tion drink now. It has the Roose-

A cross-eyed delegate arrived last week and was soon initiated into the luring mysteries of Peacock alley. On either side of the promenade are seats, occupied most of the time by beautifully gowned
women, who posed in the manner of the hosiery ad. ladies in the magazines. Our cross-eyed delegate strolled down Peacock alley. And having strolled down, he had to stroll back. He looked to one side and to the other. He tried to watch both rows of women at once. His eyes instead of being crossed, became normal. Now the sad part: Already his eyes are going the other way.
Before the convention is over he will be wall-eyed and he knows it, but he can't stop promenading. It is like the morphine habit.

"Lec-Tory-al" is how William Flinn of Pennsylvania pronounces
"electoral" referring to Pennsylvania's electoral votes, which, he says, will be cast for Roosevelt no matter who wins next week. Stimulant action is predicted by the electoral delegates of West Virginia, Maryland, California and Oregon.

"McKinley is like the man who cries 'Stop Thief,' when he has the stolen goods under his coat," says
George W. Perkins of the McKinley

ing bribed.

Although tossed over the transom by the national committee, every Roosevelt delegate whose contest was decided in favor of the Taft forces is remaining here. Not one has gone home.

All are fighting upon ousting their Taft opponents, if Roosevelt secures control of the credentials committee.

The MAN in the BROWN DERBY by WELLS HASTINGS Author of The Professor's Mystery Copyright, 1911 by Bobbs-Merrill Co.

Following is the synopsis of Wells Hastings' new novel, "The Man in the Brown Derby," serial publication of which will be begun in The Tribune Monday, June 17th:

A young man named Ellsworth,
who finds himself stranded in New York, answers a "personal" in the Herald advertising for a man capable of deciding on the instant, without ties of any sort and with a college education. At the house designated in the personal he finds Eph-raim Bond, an elderly man who tells him that he wants a man to marry
his niece, Nancy, and that Ellsworth if he consents to do this, will receive a large yearly income. Ellsworth, being desperate, consents providing the niece voluntarily agrees to the arrangement. He demands to see her.

To Ellsworth's surprise, Nancy is entirely acquiescent. He has always suffered acute humiliation because,
from birth, he has been red-handed,
and the fact that Nancy does not show aversion, instantly wins his love. She tells him that she is afraid and he promises to protect her. After the wedding ceremony is performed, Ellsworth and his bride go away to an obscure farm house in Pennsylvania where, according to the terms of the contract with Eph-raim Bond, Ellsworth has agreed to live. That night they are both awakened by strange noises and Ellsworth catches sight of a man hiding
in a clump of bushes in the garden.

The next morning, when he and Nancy go for a walk in the lane, Nancy tells him of the life of terror and solitude she has led since leaving school. Her father, once wealthy, was gradually overpowered by his brother, and finally died, and the uncle

has since kept her practically a prisoner. Ellsworth has doubts as to the legality of their marriage, but resolves to take care of Nancy at all hazards. They notice in the lane a brown derby hat which Ellsworth believes must be the property of the night prowler. However, when he returns a little later to the spot where the hat was lying, it is gone.

That day Nancy herself disappears and Ellsworth starts to search for her. After many inquiries, he learns at the village of Buckingham that Mrs. Lathrop, a boarding house keeper, has had a party of guests, one of whom answers to Nancy's description. Mrs. Lathrop is kindly and communicative, and tells Ellsworth that Nancy was in charge of a doctor and a nurse who said that she was insane
and who were taking her to a sanito-rium. When she learns that it is a case of abduction, she determines to go with Ellsworth to New York to aid him in his search. Ellsworth believes that the man calling himself a doctor is the man who wears the brown derby but the only clue he has to this is a laundry mark.

P. A. Y. E. CARS TO BE PUT ON

Five Pay-as-you-enter Type of Street Cars for the North Side Next Week

THREE NEW ONES BOUGHT

If Successful Plan Will Be Put Into Operation on the South Side

The La Crosse City Railway company is planning on running the new pay-as-you-enter cars on the north side system beginning some time next week or the following week and five cars of this type will be put on the north side when the new departure is tried out. On no other line in the city will these cars be run at present but the plan will be tried out on the north side first and if it proves successful the company may place the new style of cars on the other branches also.

Three new street cars of the pay-as-you-enter type have been purchased while two of the larger old cars are being remodeled. These cars are all large and are capable of handling big crowds and their efficiency will be increased when the new system is started.

The pay-as-you-enter cars have been running in many of the larger cities and everywhere they have proven successful as transportation is much simplified by this means and crowds can be handled more easily than under the old system.

On the new cars, entrance can be had only on the rear platform, while the exit is at the front of the car although passengers can get off the car at either platform. Both platforms are large and roomy, the rear platform being especially large. A railing is provided on the rear platform and the conductor stands behind this while the passengers pass in front of him before entering the car.

Whether the pay-as-you enter cars will be put into operation next week or the week after has not yet been definitely decided but they will be seen on the north side within a short time. Upon the success with which the new system meets on the north side will in all probability depend whether or not they will be used on all the street car lines in the city and whether they will be permanently adopted. Street car men are looking forward with interest to see how successful the new cars will be and to ascertain how the new system will work here.

NORTH SIDE IN BRIEF

When feeling blue go to the Dome. Lars and Paul Paulson of Elroy, Wis., are visiting with Bert Nelson for a few days.

Martin, Ed, Lars, Marlon and Nick Nelson are calling on north side friends.

Herman Gocha has returned to the city after a business trip to Wausau.

Mr. and Mrs. Rand, 1512 George street, are the proud parents of a baby boy born this morning.

Edward Fitzpatrick, who spent yesterday with friends in St. Paul, has returned to his home on the north side.

START WORK ON NEW TURNABLES

Work on the construction of the new ninety-five foot turntables to be installed at the C. M. & St. P. roundhouse on the North side, was begun this morning, and it is expected that about a month's time will be necessary to complete the work. The new tables were necessary because the old ones were too small to handle the larger engines efficiently and quickly enough to meet the demands. The ninety-five foot tables are the kind that are being used in the larger cities, so the local roundhouse will be as well equipped as any of the others. The building of the addition to the roundhouse will not be started for some time.

MILWAUKEE MAN WILL SPEAK HERE

John H. Moss, vice president and treasurer of the Rockwell Manufacturing company, and a prominent and well known orator, has been secured to come to La Crosse and deliver a speech at the big Fourth of July celebration to be held at Copeland park under the auspices of the North Side Progressive league. Mr. Moss is a prominent business man of Milwaukee and his talk will undoubtedly prove one of the best features of the celebration.

It's easier for woman to coax a man than drive a nail.

A wise man listens when his wife talks—at least, he listens for the last word.

U. S. AND CANADA TO CEMENT FRIENDSHIP

OTTAWA, Ont., June 15.—Through it has not been decided definitely to return to the United States the cannon captured by the British at the battle of Bunker Hill, the probabilities are that this will be done during the celebration of the centenary of peace between Canada and the United States, when there may be exchange of relics of historic battles. Minister of Militia Hughes will not discuss the published report that the Bunker Hill Memorial association of Boston wants the cannon returned.

NAUMANN ELECTED SYNOD PRESIDENT

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 15.—The deadlock vote for president of the German Lutheran synod of Minnesota and neighboring states was broken yesterday morning after eight ballots by the election of Rev. Justus H. Naumann of Wood Lake, Minn. The election took place at the fifty-fourth annual session of the synod at the St. John's Lutheran church, Margaret and Hope streets.

Aids Nature

The great success of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in curing weak stomachs, wasted bodies, weak lungs, and obstinate and lingering coughs, is based on the recognition of the fundamental truth that "Golden Medical Discovery" supplies Nature with body-building, tissue-repairing, muscle-making materials, in condensed and concentrated form. With this help Nature supplies the necessary strength to the stomach to digest food, build up the body and thereby throw off lingering obstinate coughs. The "Discovery" establishes the digestive and nutritive organs in sound health, purifies and enriches the blood, and nourishes the nerves—in short establishes sound vigorous health.

If your dealer offers something "just as good," it is probably better FOR HIM—it pays better. But you are thinking of the cure, not the profit, so there's nothing "just as good" for you. Say so.

BRYAN ADVOCATES "MARY ANN" BILL

ST. PAUL, June 15.—William Jennings Bryan, speaking before the special session of the Minnesota legislature late yesterday said, "I had intended to speak on the direct election of senators and the income tax bill but I find that you have already adopted both. I congratulate this body on their action.
"But I understand there are some things not acted upon as yet. One of these is the primary. I believe in the second choice feature, not because of any personal preference.
"We should have either a second choice or a second primary. In Georgia, where I was the other day, they have a second primary day. But the second primary day increases the cost and burden of selection. I believe that the candidate receiving the highest first and second choice should be the nominee, as that approximates as near as necessary a majority."
Mr. Bryan did not go into a discussion of the Wisconsin plan of elimination which the Minnesota primary law provides, but seemed rather to be inclined to the North Dakota system of the highest aggregate first and second choice votes.

EAGLE REGIMENT TO HOLD REUNION

Eighth Wisconsin to Dedicate Memorial Arch at Camp Randall June 18

The Eighth Wisconsin regiment known as the eagle regiment, and perhaps the most famous in the state, will hold a reunion at Camp Randall Tuesday, June 18, when the dedication of the memorial arch will take place. This regiment was camped at Randall field in 1861 prior to their engagement in the civil war.
Judge Edward Cronon of La Crosse is the only living member now in this city of the original Company I of this regiment which was organized here. He will leave for Madison Monday night to take part in the reunion.
The Eighth Wisconsin will be remembered as the regiment to which "Old Abe" the war eagle, belonged. Numerous stories have been published telling of how the mascot eagle always flew to the top of a banner during battle. Following the war, Old Abe was kept at the capitol building at Madison and was burned to death in the fire in the old capitol building several years ago.
The Eighth Wisconsin also holds the distinction of having more engagements than any other Wisconsin regiment, having met the enemy forty-three times. Several other Wisconsin regiments will hold reunions at the same time.
Judge Cronon today received notice of the reunion from Past National Commander A. G. Weissert, Milwaukee.

:: SOCIETY ::

EVENTFUL WEEK IN SOCIETY CIRCLES

Among the pleasant and handsome events of the week was the reception given Wednesday by Mrs. William Doerflinger and her daughter, Miss Doerflinger, at which three hundred invitations were issued. The beautiful home was filled with choice flowers and foliage. The rooms were filled during the receiving hours with handsomely gowned women. Many of the young women in their dainty and pretty gowns assisted in the serving and were a great attraction.

The graduating exercises of the La Crosse high school, which took place last evening at the theater, was largely attended. This was the largest class ever graduated, and the exercises were intensely interesting. The stage represented a woodland scene, masses of trees being arranged in the background, while potted plants and ferns were arranged at the sides. President William Luening made appropriate remarks and presented the diplomas to the Misses Anna Esch and Edith Eberhart, who delivered them to the class.

Following these exercises was the annual prom held at Germania hall, which was largely attended, many of the parents and friends being present.

Several special meetings of one of the local card clubs were given in honor of Mrs. Charles Williams of Minneapolis, who is visiting among her old friends. Early in the week Mrs. Homer Hart entertained the club. Mrs. A. O. Hunt entertained one evening, and Wednesday evening Mrs. S. B. Oatman entertained the club.

LUNCHEONS.

Mrs. Walton Losey entertained a dozen ladies yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Walter Robbins, who leaves today for her new home.

Mrs. W. A. Thompson entertained at a luncheon of ten covers today.

BRIDGE PARTY.

Mrs. M. O. Brayton entertained three tables at bridge last evening. The prizes were taken by Miss Helen Wilcox and Mrs. W. F. Fullmer. The guests were Mesdames Ida Kaeppler, Harvey Green, F. W. Fullmer, J. J. Schmidt, Charles Hunt, Fred Rau, the Misses Adelaide and Helen Wilcox, Miss Huttenhew and the Misses Ida and Lora Hill.

FIVE HUNDRED PARTY.

Miss Anna Hackner pleasantly entertained three tables at five hundred Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Marian Miller. The prize was won by Miss Fanny Deneen. The guests were the Misses Bessie and Fanny Deneen, Freda Newberg, Emily Imhoff, Elizabeth George, Genevieve Miller, Anna Boschert, Josephine Semsch, Helen Gallagher, Eileen Burns, Clara Munz, Marian Miller and Anna Hackner.

VACATION IN THE WEST

Miss Marguerite Mann, who has been teaching school at Judson, N. D., will spend the greater part of her vacation in the west, visiting at the homes of Dr. and Mrs. Plant, Mr. and Mrs. Cantwell of Spokane, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Rogers of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Crawford of Seattle, Wash., returning by way of Salt Lake City and Denver.

DICK AND POTTER BRAYTON CELEBRATE THEIR BIRTHDAY

Dick and Potter Brayton, sons of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Brayton, celebrated jointly their birthdays this afternoon by entertaining their young friends at Myrick park. Dick will be nine years of age, his birthday being tomorrow, June 16, and Potter was seven years old June 7. They had a delightful time playing games in the park, after which ice cream and cakes were served. Each guest was given a little fancy basket filled with balloons. The guests were: Carl Van Auker, Walter Hultz, John Kroner, Robert and Billy Hurlgen, John Alden Sier, Joe Evans, Newell Holley, Alfred Boschert, Virginia Nelson, Virginia Baker, Marie Kroner, Margaret Bennett, Helen Wallace, Frances McConnell, Billy and Frances Burgess, Norman Arntz, Carol Shaw, Albert Hirschheimer, Billy Withee, Hall and Edith Jorris, Mary Wing, Dorothy Kroner, Elizabeth and Margaret Beans. Those assisting the hostesses were Mrs. M. O. Oatman, Mrs. H. L. Taylor, Mrs. Norman Beans, Evelyn Sier and Inez Brayton.

DINNERS

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Palmer gave a dinner Tuesday evening in honor of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Parsons, and Mrs. Jackson of Gloversville, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. H. Canfield, W. P. Palmer, Mrs. Dodge and Mrs. Scoten of Sparta.

Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Funke entertained Colonel Orlando and Mrs. Holway and family at dinner yesterday.

and including the St. Michael's Orphanage was given its third reading and passed. The ordinance will be a part of the Twenty-first ward.

The city engineer was instructed to prepare an estimate of the cost of a suitable building for offices for the board of public works on the market square. This building will be necessary because of the establishment of the office of the state employment bureau and rearrangement of several of the offices in the city hall. The matter of cutting a doorway into the basement of the city hall at the left of the main entrance was referred to the committee on grounds and buildings. The extension of Vine street to the Levee Park was laid over until next meeting.

West Avenue Repaired

Several matters of street improvements were taken up and disposed of including the repair of West Avenue at Travis street. The board of public works reported that the mudhole at this place had been filled and no further action would be necessary. It was voted to put in sewers on several blocks of Avon, Summer and Rose streets on the north side and on Mormon Coulee, Fifth and Second streets on the south side. The proposed sewers on West Avenue, Jackson, Green Bay, Farnum and Denton streets, was referred to the committee on sewers.

Mayor John Dengler announced the reappointment of Jacob Kase-man as weed inspector for the north side. The council adjourned at 11:15 p. m. It will be necessary to call another meeting this month to act on the saloon licenses for the year.

Juniors to Entertain
The Juniors will entertain the Seniors this evening at a sumptuous banquet in the gymnasium. The committee in charge, of which Edwin Dahl is chairman, has spared no effort to make this the finest thing of its kind which has yet taken place in the Normal and the "eats" will be furnished under the direction of the lunch room department. A varied program will be given with musical numbers and toasts forming the principal part.

The Ladies' Glee club will give their annual party Monday night to the members of the male chorus and that event is also looked forward to by those fortunate enough to be invited. The Glee club has closed a very successful season having given a concert in West Salem and in the local auditorium, their principal achievement having been the rendition of Henry Hadley's cantata "Legend of Granada." The club will have a good nucleus with which to start next fall and with new members which will be added, next year's programs ought to be just as successful.

Class Play Tuesday

The June graduates of the Normal school will present as their class play Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night" on the evening of Tuesday, June 18, at the La Crosse Theatre. The cast includes several who have had experience in dramatics before and those who know, say that it will be a very finished presentation of one of Shakespeare's greatest comedies.

Miss Fay Vaughan of Bangor who is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin and who has studied under Prof. Dickinson there, is coaching the cast and achieving great things with the material with which had to work. The dramatic personnel is as follows:

Duke Orsino, William Stevenson.
Valentine, Mabel Hutchinson.
Curio, Ruth Rynning.
Sir Toby Belch, Earl Brandenburg.
Sir Andrew Aguecheek, Emil Krause.
Sebastian, Donald Dickinson.
Antonio, Arthur Tillman.
Malvolio, Howard Jones.
Clown, William Bonnevill.
Fabian, Gertrude Dickens.
Sea Captain, Ben. Stevens.
Viola, Maude Noprud.
Olivia, Agnes Schaller.
Maria, Carol Cotton.

SUSTAIN ELECTION OF CHICAGO JUDGE

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 15.—The supreme court today sustained the appellate court of the First district in its decision declaring Albert J. Barnes was legally elected judge of the superior court in Chicago. Judge McKenzie Cleland, who sought to have Barnes' election declared illegal and to have his declared the rightfully elected judge, loses his fight.

Cut Glass

There is no meal, however modest or extravagant, which is not made more inviting by a centerpiece of flowers, and vases of cut glass are their happiest receptacles. Our designs, flowerlike in their grace and purity of their crystal light, are shown in every form, and in all our cut glass equipment for the table we have concentrated in our collection the most beautiful patterns.

to land a La Follette man in the chairmanship.

If a La Follette man were chosen by means of Roosevelt votes, it is declared that no amount of reasoning or explanation could wipe out the idea that Roosevelt had gained a substantial victory at the very outset, with the result that he would be generally regarded as the strongest candidate for the presidential nomination. This might cause a stampede to him at any time and thus destroy all hope of making La Follette the standard bearer. The few La Follette votes for McGovern would be lost in the big number he would get from Roosevelt, and everybody would think of it only as a Roosevelt victory.

McGovern Will Stock

MADISON, Wis., June 15.—Gov. McGovern, questioned by a Milwaukee Journal representative in regard to his position relative to the chairmanship of the national convention, simply said: "I became a candidate by unanimous request of the members of the Wisconsin committee, composed of La Follette delegates, and I am still a candidate."

Friends of the governor point to the fact that National Committeeman Rogers of Wisconsin, who is Senator La Follette's law partner, attended the meeting of the steering committee in Milwaukee at which Gov. McGovern's name was put forward and acquiesced in the action, as did a number of delegates who were not members of the committee. It is argued, on the governor's side, that if he were elected temporary chairman, it could not fail to help La Follette's candidacy, for one of the senator's own followers would have received first recognition at the hands of the convention and the senator's views would be enunciated in the opening speech.

Treasurer Dahl Speaks Plainly

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 15.—State Treasurer Dahl, who is one of the delegates-at-large to Chicago, asked by a representative of The Journal, says he is of the opinion that the Wisconsin delegation will do nothing in respect to the temporary chairmanship of the national convention that will in any way harm Senator La Follette's candidacy for president.

"We are all very friendly to Gov. McGovern," he said, "and realize that he would make an excellent presiding officer, but I can easily see how our nominating a candidate for temporary chairman would give the Roosevelt men an opportunity to turn in and score a victory that would make trouble for La Follette in more ways than one. We have been elected to help nominate La Follette for president and that is the main thing so far as we are concerned."

"I do not believe that the Wisconsin delegation will do anything that will prejudice the senator's candidacy. The delegation has not met yet and therefore it has not met yet any candidate for temporary chairman. We shall take up the matter in Chicago Monday evening."

There is a strong and growing impression here that the Wisconsin delegates cannot in justice to Senator La Follette put forward a candidate for temporary chairman and thus give the Roosevelt forces an opportunity to score a decisive victory that would be likely to result in destroying the Wisconsin candidate's chances of winning.

With Johnson, Hughes, Groom and Engel twirling great ball, Clark Griffith says there is no stopping the Senators.

SOCIALISTS NOT IN REFORM WAVE

Resolution Disclaims Party Affiliation, but Does Not Refer to President Denoyer

The social-democratic party has adopted a resolution disclaiming any connection, as a party, with the Welfare League. The resolution follows:

"Whereas, The impression seems abroad that the social-democratic party is in some way connected with a so-called Welfare League, a recently organized reform movement, and 'Whereas, Reform means a reshaping of old vices and not their elimination, and

"Whereas, Socialists seek to eliminate evils caused by the capitalist scramble for profits by doing away with the entire capitalist system, and not by personal persecution of victims of competitive greed, therefore

"Be it resolved, That the social-democratic party disclaim any and all connection with the La Crosse Welfare League, which we believe is being used for political purposes, and be it further

"Resolved, That copies of this resolution be furnished the press."

This is not in any sense a criticism of L. P. Denoyer, prominent socialist and president of the Welfare League. A socialist official today declared that the social-democratic party does not forbid its members joining any social or civic organizations excepting other political parties. Any socialist may work with the Welfare League without injuring his party standing. The resolution merely declares that the socialists, as a party, are not connected with the league.

publican national committee was determined to give practically all of the remaining 68 contested seats to Taft was admitted by them today.

Roosevelt's only chance, the Taft men said, is to secure a few delegates in Texas, from districts where the Taft managers were unable to prepare contests that had any merit. A conference of Taft leaders on the national committee was held last night when they determined, it is said, to give Taft all of the 20 contested seats from Virginia, all of the 14 from Washington, two from the district of Columbia, two from North Carolina, and possibly 24 out of the 30 from Texas.

Powerless to prevent this, the Roosevelt men on the committee consoled themselves by declaring that even though the Taft men "stole" all the remaining contests, Taft would not then have enough votes to insure his nomination.

Senator Miles Polindexter of Washington planned to look after the Roosevelt end of the contests from that state. Ormsby McHarg, Roosevelt contest manager, directed the Roosevelt arguments in the Virginia camps, assisted by a number of Roosevelt men from that state. There were promises today from McHarg and Charles Dick, the latter the Taft contest manager, to consolidate the contests in both Virginia and Washington, thereby permitting committee to settle them en bloc, instead of by separate districts. This, it was agreed, makes it possible to finish the last of the contests before adjournment tonight.

BUGS WEIDELL COMES BACK TO OUTCASTS

Bugs Weidell, the old local pitcher who was sold to Milwaukee last winter, has been secured from Zanesville by the Outcasts and he will arrive in the city tonight to pitch his last game before leaving for Eau Claire tomorrow. Bugs is well known as an effective twirler and he should stop the winning streak of the league leaders. His purchase gives the Outcasts a reliable pitching staff which compares favorably with any in the league.

It is rumored today that Pitcher Bues may be released although it has not been definitely decided to let him go. In case Bues is let go, Lou Hillicker will cover first base until Van Horn returns to the game, while Bond is going back to his old position at second base today. Frank Graves expects to get into the game within two or three days and when he does the Outcasts will be able to present a stronger lineup than they have for some time.

10—National as opposed to "Dollar diplomacy."

More Desertions

It was stated at the Roosevelt headquarters this afternoon that they would get three of the negro delegates from Mississippi. This statement was not denied at the Taft camp, where it was said that for every negro that left their columns, a larger white delegation would come in.

Rumors that three or four Tennessee Taft delegates had deserted to Roosevelt was run down today by Manager McKinley and National Committeeman Monday. The delegates denied disloyalty.

Colonel's Train Late

CLEVELAND, Ohio, June 15.—His train forty-five minutes late, Colonel Roosevelt passed through Cleveland at 8 a. m. for Chicago, where he will direct the final efforts to assure his nomination by the republican national convention. He was up early and received here a fresh sheaf of telegrams by which the colonel is being kept informed on developments at Chicago.

The Lake Shore limited train, one of which bears the Roosevelt party, struck a boulder on the track near Tarrytown, N. Y., last night and was delayed for more than an hour while under parts of the Roosevelt car and others were repaired.

Roosevelt is due in Chicago at 4 p. m.

CAMP MEETING AT NEW AMSTERDAM

A camp meeting and institute will be held at New Amsterdam under the auspices of the Presbyterian church, beginning Tuesday, June 18, and lasting throughout the week. Several noted church workers and speakers from various places in the state and neighboring states will take part. Among the speakers are: Rev. Gerrit Verkuy, educational superintendent of Presbyterian Sunday school work in Minnesota and Wisconsin; Rev. R. A. Carahan, a state worker; Rev. Benjamin Thomas of Galesville; Rev. D. C. Jones, of La Crosse.

Each morning will be devoted to recreation. Daily sessions will be held at 2 and 8 p. m. The work will deal largely with methods of teaching Sunday school. Mr. D. C. Dewey of the La Crosse City Mission will speak on that subject.

Arrangements have been made by a committee whereby the expense of visitors can be greatly reduced. All wishing to attend should communicate with Mr. Fred Mulder, Midway, and notify him of their time of arrival, so that arrangements may be made to accommodate all.

CHURCH NEWS

Anglican Leadership Toward Union.

American initiative in religious leadership will penetrate famous old Lambeth Palace, London, at the end of this month. There will be held at Lambeth, on the bank of the Thames, a conference between Episcopal Church committee members from America, and some committee men of the Established Church of England. This conference is held because American enterprise projects it, and by shrewd but wholly sane and proper push, brings into new service these timehonored treasures and resources.

The Making Of Americans.

The day of chivalry and sacrifice has not departed. The Rev. Kenneth Miller and the Rev. Joel B. Hayden, members of the graduating class of Union Theological Seminary this year, and the Rev. Gabriel Doku, of the graduating class of the Reformed Seminary in Newark, refused fellowships that would support them in comfort at Oxford or Cambridge universities in England, and have just sailed for Hungary to spend a year in study of immigrants to America, and future immigrants. They are under contract for three years, and they carry with them letters of commendation and introduction signed by Secretary of State Knox.

The plan of work is a new one, and is inaugurated by the Presbyterian Board of Home Missions, as a part of its enlargement of home work to include city and country conditions, the foreigners already here and the immigrants. This Board has created permanent chairs in these subjects, and in order to get men to fill them is selecting bright young graduates and sending them, in the cases of workers for immigrants, into the countries from whence immigrants come. Upon their return they are pledged to give three years, and expect to give their lives to this immigrant work in America; a travelling school of instruction to workers in churches, including pastors, on ways to reach new settlers here.

Ministers Asked To Form Church Peace Leagues.

Ministers of the United States are appealed to by the Federal Council of Churches to form a Church Peace League. The Council's Commission on Peace and Arbitration has recently been reinforced by gifts of money for exploitation, and the Rev. Frederick Lynch, a well known Congressional minister, has been put in as its executive. The method for work that has been adopted is this Church League, in which ministers of all bodies are asked to unite. That there is public interest, and that ministers stand ready to work for peace, are shown by a recent response of thirty thousand ministers who responded to a request to preach sermons on the subject.

Catholics Opposed To Socialism.

In its fight to stem Socialism the Catholic Church has warned Catholic Archbishops in America how necessary it is that large cities be amply provided with Churches of Catholics, not American born only, but Catholics coming here from Europe. Reports of studies recently made in Vienna and Paris, the Centres of Socialism, about the equipment of Catholics in these cities, or rather the lack of equipment, have been transmitted to Archbishops here. Parishes with 5,000 to 10,000 communicants are deprecated, and Archbishops are urged to increase the number of churches if they can possibly do so, and the number of schools.

Military Operations Affect Religious Work.

The newly developed race war in Cuba, and the military operations started because of it, are affecting adversely the Christian work of the Island, especially that part projected and maintained by Americans. The growth of Protestant work in the Island, among both white and black, has been steady and along educational lines large.

Attached to the churches are schools, and these schools have been attended by children of both races, usually heretofore without prejudice to either. Reports received by the Baptist Home Mission Society show that Chapels at La Maya and at Jorahuaca have been burned, not by military forces but by marauders and melocents.

SENATORS REBEL.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 15.—Unless the special session of the legislature adjourns today, the senate will dissolve and the members will go home and, according to statements of members, they will stay until the sergeant-at-arms comes after them. To Keep Skin White, Velvety, Wrinkle-Free

(Aunt Sally in Woman's Realm)

C. M. W. says: "My arms are so coarse and rough I cannot wear short sleeves. What do you advise?" The treatment recommended to "Anise" will doubtless overcome this condition.

A. F. G. asks: "What should I do for crows' feet and for a baggy neck?" Try a wash lotion made by dissolving 1 oz. powdered sassafras in 1/2 pt. witch hazel. This is immediately effective in any wrinkled or flabby condition. Use daily for awhile and results will surprise you.

Anise: A simple way to keep your skin smooth, soft and white is to apply ordinary mercurized wax before retiring, washing it off in the morning. This keeps the face free from the particles of lifeless cuticle which constantly appear. The wax absorbs these worn-out particles, so the younger, fresher, healthier skin is always in view. An ounce of mercurized wax may be had at small cost at any drug-store. Use like cold cream.

Christ's Witness to John the Baptist. Matt. xi:2-19.

Golden Text.—Among them that are born of women there is none greater than John, yet he that is but little in the kingdom of God is greater than he, Luke vii:28.

(1.) Verse 2.—What had John done to be in prison?

(2.) Verse 3.—What do you think had produced doubt in the mind of John concerning the Messiahship of Christ?

(3.) What, if anything, was there in Christ's manner of life that would be liable to make John doubt?

(4.) What are the causes which often produce doubt in the minds of good men on matters of which at other times they have been certain, as in cases of Elijah and John?

(5.) Verses 4-6.—At what point did John need most to be strengthened?

(6.) What did Jesus consider to be the supreme proof of his mission?

(7.) What today are the proofs for the divinity of Christ's mission and gospel?

(8.) Verses 7-8.—What special scenes or demonstrations had attended John's preaching in the wilderness?

(9.) In what respect was John unlike "a reed shaken with the wind"?

(10.) What sort of clothing did John wear?

(11.) What significance is there in the fact that Jesus and John were not alike in their manner of dress?

(12.)—(13.) What is the evidence that Mal. iii:1, from which Jesus quotes, refers to John and Jesus?

(14.) As a matter of fact how did John prepare the way for Jesus?

(15.) Verse 11.—What did Jesus mean by saying that there had not arisen one greater than John the Baptist, but that the least in the kingdom of heaven was greater than he?

(16.) Verses 12-13.—how did the great revival produced by John's preaching resemble soldiers storming a city?

(17.) Why can no power in heaven

Wanted Accuracy—And He Got It

Above the great editor's desk appeared the motto: "Be Accurate"—a motto that was hammered into every member of the staff with painful insistence.

One day Sam, the latest cub reporter, sent in a news paragraph containing the following mysterious statement:

"Three hundred and ninety-nine eyes were fixed upon the speaker."

The delinquent was hailed before his chief.

"Young man," demanded the editor, sternly, "what is the meaning of this ridiculous statement?"

The cub was not abashed and answered quickly:

"Sir," said he, "an old man in the audience was blind in one eye."

Rather Unpleasant For the Bride

"The sexton of a quaint old church," says a traveller, "showed me through the cool, dim building one warm afternoon, and as we were departing pointed to the Bible on the lectern and smiled. 'A strange thing happened last Sunday in connection with that Bible,' he said. 'We had a strange minister preaching here, and when he opened the Book he came upon a notice and read it out with all due solemnity. It was a request for the congregation's sympathy and prayers for John Brown, who had been deeply afflicted by the loss of his wife.' The sexton paused and chuckled softly. 'You see, sir,' he said, 'our minister had been using that paper as a book marker for more than a year, and John Brown, in a natty gray suit, sat in a front pew with the new wife he had taken just the week before.'"

Would Hear Of It Later

The little boy was carrying home the empty bowl that had contained his father's dinner, when the bully appeared. "Do you mind if I kick that bowl," inquired the bully? "Not a bit," said the small boy. "You mean that? Do you mind if I kick that bowl?" "Not a bit." "For the last time. Do you mind if I kick that bowl?" "No. I should like you to." "Oh, would you? Then watch me!" exclaimed the bully as he shattered the bowl to atoms. "Do you mind now?" "Not a bit," retorted the small boy, edging away. "My mother borrowed the bowl from your mother this morning. You'll hear all about it when you get home!"

The Old Lady Misunderstood

The verger of a large church, seeing an old woman in one of the seats reserved for some important persons, waved on her to come out. But just at that moment the organ started playing. The old woman never having been in a church containing an organ, startled him and the congregation by calling out, "Na, na, na, man! get somebody younger, ma dancing days are past!"

or earth or hell keep a really determined man out of heaven?

(18.) Verse 14.—John no doubt had the spirit and power of Elijah and was planned by God to be the forerunner of Christ. What, if any, evidence is there that God plans every man for a specific work and gives him power to do it?

(19.) Verse 15.—What qualities are necessary to understand spiritual truth?

(20.) Why are spiritual hearing and sight—to hear God and see him—possible for all?

(21.) Verses 16-19.—Why does God direct or allow equally good men to adopt such different outward modes of life?

(22.) What was the real reason which caused so many to reject the preaching of both John and Jesus?

McGOVERN SPEAKS

MADISON, Wis., June 15.—Gov. McGovern left on Friday for Lake Geneva, where he will deliver the commencement address at the Northwestern Military academy today. He will leave Lake Geneva on Sunday for Chicago, where he will attend the national republican convention as chairman of the Wisconsin delegation.

ALABAMA DELEGATES DESERT THE COLONEL

CHICAGO, June 15.—At the round up held yesterday afternoon by William Flinn, the Pittsburgh Roosevelt boomer, Judge Oscar D. Hundley, a Roosevelt supporter of Birmingham, Ala., said that he had the written pledges of three instructed Taft delegates from his state who would vote for Roosevelt. The men, he said, were Byron Trammel and J. B. Dougherty of the third district, and a delegate named Albison of Dothan, Ala., in the seventh district.

MURDER TRIAL IS NOW BEFORE JURY

OCOONTO, Wis., June 15.—The second day of the Christenson murder trial was consumed in the selection of a jury panel. Thirty-six veniremen were exhausted on Wednesday and a special selection of twenty-four on Thursday. Ten more were summoned Thursday afternoon and the jury finally was sworn in, the state having used nine strikes and the defense seventeen. Three of the state's witnesses were examined after 4 o'clock and the state will have about twenty-five additional witnesses, including the state chemist and an expert in handwriting.

GERM LADEN DUST CAUSES CATARRH

Ely's Cream Balm Kills the Deadly Catarrh Germs. No Stomach Dosing.

Catarrh, which is bad enough in itself, often results in loss of taste, smell and hearing, and leads to serious throat and lung troubles if not promptly checked. The seat of catarrh is usually in the back of the nose, and its natural course is downward, into the throat and thence to the lungs.

Don't take any chances. If you have any symptoms of catarrh—stuffed up feeling in the head, nasty discharge from the nose, sore throat, or dry, hacking cough, get a fifty cent bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist, and begin the treatment at once.

This remedy is not a "burning out" or "drying up" process. It is simply a cleansing, healing, anti-septic Balm, taken through the nostrils back into the hear and throat, where it instantly reaches the seat of the trouble. That's the only way to effectually and permanently cure catarrh.

Catarrh makes you offensive to yourself and friends. Start using Ely's Cream Balm today, and in a short time you will be permanently cured of this nasty, disgusting disease. Agent, O. T. Erhart.

New Bible For Spaniards.

So great is the number of Spanish speaking people in the United States, and especially in the south and southwest, that the American Bible Society and some of the American mission boards are joining with the British and Foreign Bible Society to make a new translation of the Bible expressly for them. The commission is to begin its sittings this summer, and in order to secure greater perfection in language will hold its sessions in Spain itself. The representatives of the American Bible Society are Dr. Henry C. Thomson, who has until recently been head of a training school for boys in Porto Rico; Dr. Chas. H. Green, who goes to Spain from Argentina; and Victor D. Dace, a Protestant pastor of Mexico.

No doubt there are wives who drive their husbands to drink, and there are other husbands who would like to have such wives.

MORRIS SPEAKS IN WEST SALEM

Lieutenant Governor Talks to Men's League on "Conscience and Politics"

DISCUSSES PARTIES' BIRTHS

Describes Development of Present System and Gives Reform Suggestion

WEST SALEM, Wis., June 15.—(Special.)—On last Monday evening a good audience of West Salem people were given a great treat when Thomas Morris, lieutenant governor of Wisconsin, delivered an address to the members of the Men's league and their guests upon the subject, "Conscience and Politics."

Describes Parties
After a brief and lucid analysis of the two great and antagonistic principles urged by Hamilton and Jefferson, centralization of governmental powers in the hands of few, and the more radical democracy which would lodge and keep the power in the hands of the people themselves, he showed historically how there has always been a line of cleavage between these two great basic principles which has been, with distinctness, the dividing line of the great political parties as well.

Then he proceeded to show how each man, actuated by local considerations, personal economic interests and the like, has taken sides and influenced legislation and party principles, naturally enough, in the light of those interests, his sin if he sins, being rather from ignorance of the opposed interests, from his own inability to see from any other than his own biased standpoint.

Tells Remedies
The solid and impressive manner in which the speaker nailed down this fact to stay, and traced the development and activity of the "Boss" system as its natural outcome, might have been dampening to those who are hoping for the correction of abuses, but the latter part of the speech was to a very different effect. He traced some of the greater problems of our past political history and show what has been the way out, even the enlistment of the intelligence and interest of the people in general until they take hold of the matter themselves. He laid emphasis upon the idea that it is not probable that any single interest would ever have any selfish financial appeal to the majority of the people, and that, for that reason, the people would always be a competent and fair minded jury.

RUSHFORD, MINN.

Despondent over ill health and determined to end her life, Mrs. Helmer Damsen of Highland Prairie hung herself by a silk scarf to a rafter in an outbuilding last Sunday. The discovery was made when, being called to dinner, she failed to respond, and search revealed her almost lifeless body which was immediately cut down and at the present writing the unfortunate young woman has strong chances of recovery.

Mr. John McLeod of this city has become a candidate for county commissioner from this district. This city has not had a member upon the board for thirty years and is surely entitled to representation. Mr. McLeod is certainly a good man for the place, being prudent and conservative and our interests will be well guarded if he is elected to the place.

There occurred at Minneapolis last Monday the marriage of two young people of Peterson. Mr. Carl Sundby and Miss Bertha Erickson. Both parties are well known here and have many friends who wish them much happiness.

Mrs. Anna Ness, familiarly known as "Grandma" Ness, died last Tuesday morning at 7:30, of infirmities due to old age. Mrs. Ness was born in Norway, August 7, 1826, and in 1846 was married to Andres Ness. Seven years later they came to America and have resided in Dane county, Wis., Pilot Mount, Minn., and later in Rushford, where Mr. Ness died twenty-two years ago. Mrs. Ness leaves six children, Elizabeth of Rushford; S. A. Ness of Silverton, Ore.; E. A. Ness of Pilot Mount; O. A. Ness of Red Stone, Mont.; N. A. Ness of Mercer, N. D.; and Andrew of Rushford. She also leaves forty-four grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren. "Grandma" Ness was dearly loved by all who knew her because of her sweet, patient disposition, ever ready to aid in times of trouble and an unfaltering and ever increasing faith in her God. Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the residence, and at 1:30 from the Lutheran church in this city. Interment will be made in the North Prairie cemetery.

Gilbert Hagen of South Rushford passed to the great beyond last Tuesday afternoon after an illness of two and a half years, from consumption. Mr. Hagen was born in Gulbrandsdalen, Norway, January 19, 1850, and came to America, first to Monroe county, Wis., then in 1903 to Highland Prairie, and in the spring of the present year moved to South Rushford. Mr. Hagen was married twice and leaves five children, besides two brothers and one sister. Funeral services were held at the South Rushford home Thursday forenoon and interment made in the Highland Prairie cemetery.

Saturday, June 15, has been selected as the date for the big "field day and farmers' institute day" at Peterson. Among the speakers will be Wm. Lee, republican candidate for governor; James E. Elwell, author of the Elwell road bill; Wallace Ball of the Milwaukee Grain commission, and Forest Hency of the state university. The Norwegian dialect comedian, Carl Olson, will also

PHYSICIAN ADVISES CUTICURA REMEDIES

For Eczema, Patient's Wrist and Shin Itched Like Poison. Scratched Until They Bled. Says: "Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured Me."

"Four years ago I had places break out on my wrist and on my shin which would itch and burn by spells, and scratching them would not seem to give any relief. When the trouble first began, my wrist and shin itched like poison. I would scratch those places until they would bleed before I could get any relief. Afterwards the places would scale over, and the flesh underneath would look red and feverish. Sometimes it would begin to itch until it would wake me from my sleep, and I would have to go through the scratching ordeal again."

"I consulted a physician in regard to it, and he pronounced it 'dry eczema.' I used an ointment which the doctor gave me, but it did no good. Then he advised me to try the Cuticura Remedies. As this trouble has been in our family for years, and is considered hereditary, I felt anxious to try to head it off. I got the Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills, and they seemed to be just what I needed."

"The disease was making great headway on my system until I got the Cuticura Remedies which have cleared my skin of the great pest. From the time the eczema healed four years ago, until now, I have never felt any of its pest, and I am thankful to the Cuticura Soap and Ointment which certainly cured me. I always use the Cuticura Soap for toilet, and I hope other sufferers from skin diseases will use the Cuticura Soap and Ointment."

(Signed) Irven Hutchison, Three Rivers, Mich., Mar. 16, 1911.

Although Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold throughout the world, a liberal sample of each, with 32-p. book on the skin and scalp will be sent free, on application to Foster Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. 17A, Boston.

TWO PATROLMEN KILL SICK CAT

"Dead" Cat Walks in Alley After Patrolmen Have Sent Bullets Through Its Head

The monotony of routine work at the central police station was broken yesterday afternoon when some person of humanitarian turn of mind called the station and imparted the information that a sick cat was suffering in a nearby alley.

Mike Britton, was summoned to the rail by the captain, who informed Britton of the critical condition of the suffering animal. Mike, who had long since won fame as a dog annihilator, gave his belt a hitch, pulled out his trusty ".45" and with a "do or die" expression departed to end the suffering of the cat. Mike found the cat hovering between life and death and fired at close range, with apparently fatal effect.

Scarcely had Britton returned to the office when two little girls entered with a tale about a wounded cat cake-walking around the alley. Mike returned but none of the cat's nine lives was in evidence.

As he entered the door the telephone bell rang and in reply to the captain's inquiry a voice answered: "Say, will you send an officer up here to kill the cat Britton just killed?"

This time "Bill" Horschack was sent to finish the job. Walking up and down the alley, Bill found the object of his search and coming to close quarters sent a bullet to its billet. Satisfied that he had done a good job, Bill started to return but glancing back, saw the animal looking at him in amazement. Then Bill lost all patience and let go a random shot which snuffed out the cat's remaining seven lives.

give a few oratorical stunts. There will be a fine automobile parade and in the afternoon, sports of all kinds will be played, including a Peterson-Choice ball game. Two bands will furnish music and special coaches will be attached to the morning freight trains from east and west, arriving in time for the parade. A special one and one-third fare will also be made for the trip. Peterson has always stood by our city most enthusiastically when we have celebrated and let us show our appreciation of the fact by giving a big crowd from here next Saturday.

Miss Flora Olsen, who has been attending Winona normal school is now home.

Chicago Grain Letter CHICAGO, June 15. Soaking rains in the northwest, including the Canadian spring wheat country, made a lower wheat market here today.

One of the features of the day was the disposition of traders to get away from the July delivery. Sales were 20,000 bushels.

The corn market was lower again today on the account of the fine weather for the growing crop. There was a poor cash demand. Receipts were liberal. Sales were 160,000 bushels.

Oats suffered with the balance of the list, but steadied later on account of the week end covering 27 shorts. Sales were 145,000 bushels.

Provisions were lower, following the reports of larger runs on hogs at the yards which are expected next week and in sympathy with grain.

PLAN TO DECIDE THE CITY CHAMP

Series of Elimination Contests Suggested by the Clothiers to Choose Title Holders

In order to settle the city championship satisfactorily, the La Crosse Clothing company baseball club has decided to have four of the strongest teams in the city play elimination games, the winner of which will meet them later for the premier honors. The teams named to take part in this elimination series are the North La Crosse, Nelsons, Summits and Athletes clubs.

This plan has been decided upon as in the past it has been thought that the championship was settled satisfactorily, and it was for to purpose of deciding it definitely that the elimination games are proposed.

Following is the plan of the clothing company club:

Manager, Athletes Baseball Club; Manager, Nelsons Baseball Club; Manager, North La Crosse Baseball Club; Manager, Summits Baseball Club.

Gentlemen:—This is to inform you that we have decided to begin the city championship series on Sunday, August 25, the second game to be played on the subsequent Sunday and the third game on Sept. 2, Labor day. We have picked the above named clubs as contenders for said championship and it will, therefore, become necessary that three of these teams be eliminated from taking part in the coming series. Therefore, we suggest that arrangements be made as soon as possible between the above mentioned clubs in order for us to decide who will be our opponents for the 1912 championship.

We feel that the above is the only fair proposition to all concerned, and we trust you will be governed accordingly, in fact, this is our final proposition. (Signed)

MANAGEMENT, LA CROSSE CLOTHING COMPANY BASEBALL CLUB.

ATHLETES TRAIN ON BOARD THE FINLAND

ON BOARD STEAMER FINLAND, AT SEA, by Wireless, June 15.—On the second day out from New York, the members of the United States Olympic team today indulged lightly in their favorite exercises. The cork running track was initiated by the runners and walkers. The lawn tennis court and swimming pool were popular. The jumpers limbered up in the half dozen pits and the pole vaulters got out their bamboo poles for trial in the big vaulting room. All around training was taken in the gymnasium which is fully equipped.

Everybody was in good humor and bubbling over with confidence. The land lubbers seem to have found their sea legs and every member is in good physical condition.

CUBS SUBSTITUTE WINS A BIG GAME

Knocks Out Home Run with Two on Bases and Also Slams One for Triple

NATIONAL LEAGUE
Chicago, 7; Philadelphia, 5.
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 15.—Jerry Downs, substituting at short for Joe Tinker, played the stellar role in the Cubs' 7 to 5 victory over the Phillies yesterday. Jerry contributed a triple and a home run. The four-bagger came with two Chicagoans on bases. Score:

Johnson Bought by the White Sox

MADISON, Wis., June 15.—Pitcher Johnson of the local team, the Wisconsin-Illinois league's "smoke ball" pitcher, will go to the White Sox at the close of the season. Ted Sullivan, scout for the Sox, while in Madison yesterday secured an option on Johnson. Sullivan says the player resembles the great Walter Johnson of the Washington club.

EAU CLAIRE GETS JUMP IN SERIES

Bersing Allows Outcasts but Two Bingles, Leaders Winning the First Game 3 to 1

Bersing was too much for the Outcasts who could gather but two swats, one a scratch, off his delivery and Eau Claire took the first game of the series with La Crosse yesterday by a 3 to 1 score. Schroeder made the only clean hit off Bersing and that was a single to right but the runner was almost thrown out at first by Bemis who held the ball fast. The other swat was a smash over second by Larson, the call coming in such a way that the catcher couldn't field it. Both hits came in the fifth and DuChien was hit filling the bags but they got Meinert for the third out.

The visiting hurler was slightly wild issuing six passes and hitting three in the ribs but the Outcasts were unable to hit the ball safely. Schairer was also in good form and he twirled a nice game allowing only eight hits but several of these were bunched for tallies. Bersing's wildness was responsible for the Outcasts' bachelor run as not a hit figured in the tallying.

La Crosse never had a chance to win with Bersing pitching an unbeatable game and had it not been for his wildness in the eighth it is doubtful if they would ever have made a run for only one man reached third up to that time. With the bases filled in the eighth Bues knocked out a sacrifice fly to Bemis which let DuChien trot in with the Outcasts' only run.

The Outcasts were further crippled when in the first inning Brown was hit by a foul tip and Morse, who started in to play first base, had to don the mask and big mitt, while Brown covered first for the rest of that frame. Brown had to retire after the inning was over then Bues was put on the initial sack. Morse caught a good game only one stolen base being registered on him and he handled Schairer's delivery in good style. Hillicker, purchased from Winona, made his first appearance in a La Crosse uniform yesterday taking Bond's place at second base. He played a good game making one error which, however, did not figure in the scoring.

Benrud, the backstop of the Eau Claire club, made the longest hit of the day, clouting the ball over Meinert's head in the eighth for three corners. Charley Weigant robbed McDonite of a hit in the third by going over toward third for his grounder and retiring him by a great throw from deep short. Schroeder also took a hit from Henning's bat in the eighth after a long sprint. Grimes beat Schairer out of a swat in the seventh when he ran back and nabbed Schairer's fly with one hand.

Schairer handed out a pass to Kick to start the third and this proved good for the visitors' first tally. Weckler laid down a bunt which moved Kick to second and he took third on Henning's boulder to Larson. Vigerust poked out a single to center sending Kick over the pan. Benrud closed the frame by forcing Vigerust at second.

Eau Claire went out in order in the fourth but in the fifth Bersing's one baser to right paved the way for another tally. Kick followed suit with a single to left putting Bersing on second. Weckler sacrificed the pair ahead and when Henning went out by way of Hillicker, Bersing counted. Schairer took care of Vigerust.

Two were down in the eighth when Benrud tripled over Meinert's head and Bemis made good by singling, registering the catcher.

DuChien drew his second pass for an opener in the eighth but Meinert flew out. Weigant was hit by Bersing then Morse walked filling the bags with one down. Bues clouted out a long fly to Bemis giving DuChien a ride home but Bersing got Hillicker for the third out.
